

I urge the FCC NOT to drop regulations concerning Net Neutrality. It is very important to keep the internet and all it's new and information channels free for everyone, not just big corporations. It is important for everyone to be able to get to the internet and not for some to control what is available.

